Have you ever been the subject of disciplinary action
by any bar or court to which you have been admitted?

Yes

No

If yes, please explain:

In Wissel v. Rural Media Group, Inc., Case No. 4:24-cv-999-P (N.D. Texas), I opposed counsel's second request for more time to answer. I felt material prejudice to my client could result. See id. ECF No. 14. The Honorable Mark T. Pittman disagreed and sanctioned me with a $150.00 fine and ordered me to read certain documents governing attorney conduct. See ECF No. 15 (11/26/2024). I complied, as ordered. See ECF No. 16. I regret my violation. I remain as attorney for my client before Judge Pittman.

I understand this court has analogous standards as those adopted in the Northern District of Texas. See Utah Stand. Prof. Civ. No. 14. I will not violate those standards, or any rule or order of this court.

¹ I am currently on "inactive" status with respect to my membership in the State Bar of Texas. I voluntarily took "inactive" status in July 2024 because I no longer live in Texas or practice law in Texas state courts. My decision to take "inactive" status with respect to my State Bar of Texas membership did not relate to or overlap with disciplinary proceedings of any kind. My understanding is that being on voluntary "inactive" status unrelated to any disciplinary proceeding does not preclude me from being admitted pro hac vice to this Court, but I am taking care to disclose this status in order to be as transparent as possible.
